

Nye

DAVID W. and HAZEL BOWERS NYE

David and Hazel Nye

DeLila Shelton Nye

David W. Nye was a pioneer, a Duchesne County freighter, mail carrier, rancher, stockman, and foreman at Knight's ranch on Blue Bench for seven years. He hauled the earliest first-class mail via sleigh and team for several years and was stationed in Indian Canyon to haul the mail, etc.

David Nye married DeLila Shelton in Vernal in 1906. They were the parents of seven sons and one daughter. His wife died in 1929.

In 1932 he married Hazel Wadley Bowers in Tabiona and they had one daughter.

Five of Dave's sons served their country in the armed forces in World War II. They were Ronald, Gale, Delmar, William, and Bud. Others were Delphia, Ted, Erycel.

Dave started driving a four-horse freight team at the age of seven, when he accompanied his father, Charles Nye, a Uintah County pioneer freighter, on his trips. He worked as a cowboy for Wilford Whitlock when still a boy and trailed a herd of cattle up the Duchesne River to Tabiona in 1902 for delivery to buyers. He hauled freight from Price to Vernal and was one of the last stagecoach drivers from Colton to Duchesne. His is a colorful career, full of exciting pioneer moments.

DELMAR (SCOTT) and DORIS JONES NYE

I, Delmar (Scott) Nye, was born in Duchesne, Utah, on April 7, 1919. My father's name was David Warner Nye and my mother's name was Delila Sherilda Shelton. We lived in Antelope in the early years of my life. When I was 3 years old I had the whooping cough and had a very bad time of it. I went to Myton school.

I lost my mother when I was 9 years old. We moved to Baggs, Wyoming, after my mother died. Delphia, my sister helped by cooking and taking care of us. Then we moved to Tabiona. My father married Hazel Wadley Bowers on December 24, 1932.

I worked at a number of jobs, the CCC's at Bridgeland, herding sheep. I worked for Jep Thomas and Orin Curry. From Tabiona I moved to Granger. While living in Granger, Utah, I was a trainer and breeder of quarter horses. In Chariot racing I've won many trophies and gone to the National Finals in Pocatello, Idaho, six out of ten years of racing.

I, Doris Jones, was born in Duchense, Utah on January 7, 1924 to Clementine Quiver Coe and John Henry Jones. My early years were spent in Tabiona, Utah. I went to school, parties, dances and all of the fun things we did in those days.

When I was two years old our house burned to the ground. My father and brothers built another home just below where the other home was.

Back: Phoebe Litster, Lottie Pierce, Katie Hodgkinson;
Front: Mary Wilson, Leone Maxwell, Jessie Maxwell-sisters
of David W. Nye.

Trudy, Jim, Donnell, Donna and Steven

The next few years were a period of transfers for Jim. After basic training, he went to a naval base at Millington, Tennessee. He qualified as a hydraulic mechanic. Donna and Steven flew to Millington to be with Jim. After completing the school at Millington, Tennessee, Jim was transferred back to California for one month, taking his family with him. Upon completion of that schooling, Jim was stationed permanently at New River Air Station, Jacksonville, North Carolina. Donna and Steven lived in Tabiona until Jim found a place for them to live, and then they flew to North Carolina to be with Jim. They lived in a little town, Verona, for fifteen months.

In October, 1973, Jim was assigned six months cruise duty, and so once again, Donna and their son flew back to Utah, and then to Tabiona. They were expecting an addition to their family. On February 17, 1974, their daughter, Trudy Lynn, was born in Heber. Jim was on the aircraft carrier Iwo Jima and visited Spain, France, Greece, and the Island of Crete. His unit helped to clear the Suez Canal of the equipment that had been sunk there in 1967, when Israel and Egypt were at war.

During this cruise, Jim re-enlisted for four years. He returned to North Carolina in May, 1974, and immediately flew to Utah, where his family was waiting. He saw his four-month-old daughter for the first time.

After a week in Utah, the Morrison family left once more. They had a new car and drove back to Jacksonville, North Carolina, vacationing on the way.

Jim's enlistment was up, and he was honorably released from the U.S. Marine Corps in April, 1978, with the rank of Staff Sergeant.

The Morrison family drove back to Tabiona and set about making a permanent home. Jim is employed by Utah Machinery Co. in Roosevelt, but their home is Tabiona.

Their third child, another daughter, Twila Donnell, was born May 19, 1980, also at Heber.

The service life was good for them. They met many people who became good friends, and they will never forget the special times they had with them.

They love Tabiona and think that it truly is the most beautiful place on earth.

JOSEPH T. MURDOCK

Joseph T. Murdock was born November 21, 1884 and died July 1, 1963. He was a son of Parley A. and Lucy Hundley Murdock. Joe was educated in Heber City Schools and BYU.

Joe was a sheep man. He with his father P.A. Murdock, and a brother-in-law, Joseph Peterson, bought the Jerimey ranch on the upper West Fork of the Duchesne River.

He married Marvel Lay and they made their home at the ranch for a few years and later built a home in Heber City, where the children could attend school and spend the summer months at the ranch. Joe and Marvel are the parents of seven children, three deceased.

Joe sold the ranch to Orven Moon.

Marvel Lay was born August 6, 1897 in Vernal, Utah, a daughter of William Elsy and Maud Davis Lay. She attended Kingberry Congregational Grade School and graduated from the Wilcox Academy in 1916.

The family moved to Hanna, Utah in 1912. Having always lived on a farm, Marvel fit right into ranch life when she married Joseph T. Murdock, co-owner and operator of a sheep ranch on the upper Duchesne River.

The Murdocks built a home in Heber in 1925 and spent the winter months in Heber and the spring and summer months at the ranch in Duchesne County.

Marvel was chosen Wasatch County Mother of the Year, and gained national recognition as President of the National Wool Growers auxiliary for two years. Joe and Marvel are the parents of two daughters who passed away in infancy and five sons; Lovell A. deceased, Harvey L., Robert G., J. Don, and Allen D.

Marvel presently lives in Heber City.

Joseph T.

Marvel

Nye

DAVID W. and HAZEL BOWERS NYE

David and Hazel Nye

DeLila Shelton Nye

Back: Phoebe Litster, Lottie Pierce, Katie Hodgkinson;
Front: Mary Wilson, Leone Maxwell, Jessie Maxwell-sisters
of David W. Nye.

David W. Nye was a pioneer, a Duchesne County freighter, mail carrier, rancher, stockman, and foreman at Knight's ranch on Blue Bench for seven years. He hauled the earliest first-class mail via sleigh and team for several years and was stationed in Indian Canyon to haul the mail, etc.

David Nye married DeLila Shelton in Vernal in 1906. They were the parents of seven sons and one daughter. His wife died in 1929.

In 1932 he married Hazel Wadley Bowers in Tabiona and they had one daughter.

Five of Dave's sons served their country in the armed forces in World War II. They were Ronald, Gale, Delmar, William, and Bud. Others were Delphia, Ted, Erycel.

Dave started driving a four-horse freight team at the age of seven, when he accompanied his father, Charles Nye, a Uintah County pioneer freighter, on his trips. He worked as a cowboy for Wilford Whitlock when still a boy and trailed a herd of cattle up the Duchesne River to Tabiona in 1902 for delivery to buyers. He hauled freight from Price to Vernal and was one of the last stagecoach drivers from Colton to Duchesne. His is a colorful career, full of exciting pioneer moments.

DELMAR (SCOTT) and DORIS JONES NYE

I, Delmar (Scott) Nye, was born in Duchesne, Utah, on April 7, 1919. My father's name was David Warner Nye and my mother's name was Delila Sherilda Shelton. We lived in Antelope in the early years of my life. When I was 3 years old I had the whooping cough and had a very bad time of it. I went to Myton school.

I lost my mother when I was 9 years old. We moved to Baggs, Wyoming, after my mother died. Delphia, my sister helped by cooking and taking care of us. Then we moved to Tabiona. My father married Hazel Wadley Bowers on December 24, 1932.

I worked at a number of jobs, the CCC's at Bridgeland, herding sheep. I worked for Jep Thomas and Orin Curry. From Tabiona I moved to Granger. While living in Granger, Utah, I was a trainer and breeder of quarter horses. In Chariot racing I've won many trophies and gone to the National Finals in Pocatello, Idaho, six out of ten years of racing.

I, Doris Jones, was born in Duchense, Utah on January 7, 1924 to Clementine Quiver Coe and John Henry Jones. My early years were spent in Tabiona, Utah. I went to school, parties, dances and all of the fun things we did in those days.

When I was two years old our house burned to the ground. My father and brothers built another home just below where the other home was.

Nye

DAVID W. and HAZEL BOWERS NYE

David and Hazel Nye

DeLila Shelton Nye

Back: Phoebe Litster, Lottie Pierce, Katie Hodgkinson;
Front: Mary Wilson, Leone Maxwell, Jessie Maxwell-sisters
of David W. Nye.

David W. Nye was a pioneer, a Duchesne County freighter, mail carrier, rancher, stockman, and foreman at Knight's ranch on Blue Bench for seven years. He hauled the earliest first-class mail via sleigh and team for several years and was stationed in Indian Canyon to haul the mail, etc.

David Nye married DeLila Shelton in Vernal in 1906. They were the parents of seven sons and one daughter. His wife died in 1929.

In 1932 he married Hazel Wadley Bowers in Tabiona and they had one daughter.

Five of Dave's sons served their country in the armed forces in World War II. They were Ronald, Gale, Delmar, William, and Bud. Others were Delphia, Ted, Erycel.

Dave started driving a four-horse freight team at the age of seven, when he accompanied his father, Charles Nye, a Uintah County pioneer freighter, on his trips. He worked as a cowboy for Wilford Whitlock when still a boy and trailed a herd of cattle up the Duchesne River to Tabiona in 1902 for delivery to buyers. He hauled freight from Price to Vernal and was one of the last stagecoach drivers from Colton to Duchesne. His is a colorful career, full of exciting pioneer moments.

DELMAR (SCOTT) and DORIS JONES NYE

I, Delmar (Scott) Nye, was born in Duchesne, Utah, on April 7, 1919. My father's name was David Warner Nye and my mother's name was Delila Sherilda Shelton. We lived in Antelope in the early years of my life. When I was 3 years old I had the whooping cough and had a very bad time of it. I went to Myton school.

I lost my mother when I was 9 years old. We moved to Baggs, Wyoming, after my mother died. Delphia, my sister helped by cooking and taking care of us. Then we moved to Tabiona. My father married Hazel Wadley Bowers on December 24, 1932.

I worked at a number of jobs, the CCC's at Bridgeland, herding sheep. I worked for Jep Thomas and Orin Curry. From Tabiona I moved to Granger. While living in Granger, Utah, I was a trainer and breeder of quarter horses. In Chariot racing I've won many trophies and gone to the National Finals in Pocatello, Idaho, six out of ten years of racing.

I, Doris Jones, was born in Duchesne, Utah on January 7, 1924 to Clementine Quiver Coe and John Henry Jones. My early years were spent in Tabiona, Utah. I went to school, parties, dances and all of the fun things we did in those days.

When I was two years old our house burned to the ground. My father and brothers built another home just below where the other home was.